

INTERNSHIPS

washington river
protection solutions

WRPS is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer dedicated and focused on diversity.

When you choose to work as an intern at Washington River Protection Solutions, you are choosing to invest in your future while working on one of the industry's most exciting and important environmental restoration projects. Whether you are interested in engineering, science, business, environmental or other professional areas, you can expect a challenging and rewarding work experience. Interns may also participate in development programs designed to broaden knowledge and sharpen skills. WRPS values diversity and provides equal opportunities to all applicants based upon training, performance, experience and overall qualifications.

Qualifications

- U.S. Citizenship
- Maintaining a 2.5 GPA
- At least 18 years of age
- At least two quarters/semesters of college education completed prior to the internship
- Enrolled as a full-time student (12+ credit hours) during the two quarters/semesters immediately preceding the start of the internship

Potential Opportunities

Engineering
Computer Science
Business/Accounting
Science (Chemistry, Biology)
Mathematics
Health Physics
Environmental
Construction Management
Safety and Health

Other major fields of study may be considered based upon project and business needs.

Internship Details

Internships are generally a 10- to 12-week work experience during summer break. Interns must be able to work full-time (40 hours a week) during the internship assignment. Interns earn a weekly wage rate paid every two weeks.

Contact your academic advisor or career placement center to learn whether it may be possible to earn college credit from your educational institution for "independent study" during your internship experience.

Contact Sharon Boness, WRPS Internship Coordinator, at 509-372-3289 if you need additional information.

How To Apply

Students who are qualified and interested are invited to apply to ANR Group Inc., who is our contracted intern service provider. The web site is: www.anrinterns.com/wrps.

