

Speaker to Address Faculty Governance Limitations Nov. 5

Nicholas Gier, President of the Idaho State Federation of Teachers, will speak about “The Crisis in Idaho Higher Education” at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 5, in the Student Union Simplot A Ballroom. His address is free and open to the public.

Gier, emeritus professor of philosophy at the University of Idaho, will speak about the proposed State Board of Education policy changes and other attempts to limit faculty governance and what the union is doing to respond to these challenges and protect faculty rights.

As an added bonus, participants are invited to enter a raffle for four Stueckle Skybox tickets to the Boise State-Nevada football game. You must be present at the talk to win.

The event is presented by the Boise State University Federation of Teachers. For more information, visit the Web site. (<http://www.boisestate.edu/bsuaft/>)

#