

I. Instructions to the applicant:

You are responsible for assuring that references from persons who can address your qualifications for baccalaureate education in social work and for professional social work practice are received by the School of Social Work. References from employers, supervisors, colleagues, field instructors, and social work professors are appropriate. References from members of your own family or personal friends are not. If you are admitted and enrolled, you have a right under Public Law 93-380 to review your references. Please sign below to indicate if you waive this right. It is important for the person writing your reference and the BSW Admissions Committee to be aware of your decision.

This form and letter of recommendation should be included with your application materials or sent directly to the School of Social Work. You must provide all information requested in this top section. Print your name and mark your desired program/location to ensure that this recommendation will be matched to your file. Please type or print.

Print the name and address of the person providing the recommendation. Provide him or her with an envelope addressed to: School of Social Work BSW Program, 1910 University Drive, Boise ID 83725-1940. They must seal the envelope and sign along the flap.

Under the provisions of the Family Education Rights and Privacy Acts of 1974, this applicant (if admitted and enrolled) will have access to the information provided unless he/she has waived such access.

I hereby waive my right of access to the information in this recommendation.		I do not waive my right of access to the information in this recommendation

II. Instructions to the Reference Writer:

Your thoughtful, frank reflection on the qualifications of this applicant for admission to the Boise State University Bachelors of Social Work Program will make a major contribution to our admissions process. Admission to the BSW Program is highly competitive. Our program is intellectually and personally challenging and is designed to educate small numbers of outstanding social work practitioners. We are asking your assistance in identifying potential students of exceptional maturity, with values compatible with those of professional social work, with capacity for critical thinking and self-reflection, and with strong potential for personal and professional growth. In addition to filling out this form we encourage you to elaborate upon your candid assessment of this candidate in a separate letter. Please seal your reference in an envelope, sign your name across the envelope flap and return it to BSW Admissions, Boise State University School of Social Work, 1910 University Drive, Boise, ID 83725-1940. Thank you for your assistance in our graduate admissions process.
