

See A Movie, Help Some Pets

The Environmental Studies Association (ESA)

Presents: The Omega Man

The Omega Man is a 1971 science fiction thriller starring Charlton Heston. The movie is based on Richard Matheson's 1954 novel, I Am Legend. A third adaptation with Will Smith is scheduled for release on December 14, 2007.

It is the year 1977, two years since biological warfare between the People's Republic of China and the Soviet Union wiped out the entire world population in March, 1975. This is revealed through flashback newsreel footage. Also in flashback, we learn that Neville, at the time a military scientist, had in the midst of the military and social upheaval which resulted from the spread of the deadly disease, injected himself with an experimental vaccine. The vaccine, for reasons that were not explained, had rendered Neville immune to the plague. In Los Angeles, several hundred somewhat resistant albinos calling themselves "The Family" have survived the plague.

Date and Time: December 7th, 2007, 7:00p.m.
Where: Community Room of the BSU University Suites Apts. (across from Brady Street garage)

We are accepting donations for the Humane Society at the movie:

Please bring one of these goodies and help out the animals that are horribly overcrowded at the shelter.

Suggestions for Donations:

- ◆ Blankets
- ◆ Cat and dog food dishes
- ◆ Cat litter
- ◆ Clean plastic litter boxes
- ◆ Dog biscuits
- ◆ Puppy and kitten food
- ◆ Rawhide chew sticks
- ◆ Towels
- ◆ Washable rugs
- ◆ Dog and cat food
- ◆ Dog and cat beds