

Boise State University
Department of Biological Sciences

Permission to Proceed to Thesis Defense

Master of Science in Biology
Master of Science in Raptor Biology

Before a thesis defense can be formally set, graduate students must obtain approval from all members of their supervisory committee indicating that the thesis has progressed sufficiently to be ready for defense on or after the date specified below.

Student's Name:

Proposed earliest defense date:

Committee Members and Signature Approval

Major Thesis Advisor

Name Department

Signature Date

Committee Members (Check to indicate co-advisor)

Name Department

Signature Date

Name Department

Signature Date

Name Department

Signature Date

Once complete, please return this form to the person in the department responsible for scheduling thesis defense seminars. Note that the supervisory committee must receive the defense version of the thesis at least two weeks in advance of the defense date, unless other arrangements have been made with the committee members.