Boise has its river, Switzerland its mountains. Australia's Outback is famous the world over and Mount Fuji symbolizes Japan. In HIST 223, you will explore how the natural world has shaped human communities around the world and then delve into the history of your favorite place.

Prof. Lisa Brady
Department of History
For more information email lisabrady@boisestate.edu