Fall 2020
HIST 330 - Human Rights Past & Present

This course uses history diagnostically to explore what has advanced and obstructed human rights in order to enhance human rights advocates' effectiveness today. (Hist. 330 is part of the Human Rights Certificate program; it is open to all upper division students regardless of major or enrollment in the certificate.)

Prof. Jill Gill
Department of History
For more information email jgill@boisestate.edu