Why is Korea divided? Is there hope for reunification? Can seven decades of separation and animosity be overcome? This course examines the roots of the 1950-1953 Korean War with special attention to the military conflict as well as its political and social legacies.

Prof. Lisa Brady
Department of History
For more information email lisabrady@boisestate.edu