This course offers a historical overview of modern Iran from the establishment of the Qajar dynasty in 1785 to the present day. To provide an in-depth understanding of modern Iranian culture and society, it enriches the political narrative(s) of Iranian history with perspectives from the arts, literature, culture, and everyday life.

History is understanding the past by connecting politics with culture and people

Prof. Ida Meftahi
Department of History
For more information email idameftahi@boisestate.edu