

ABOUT US

Located on the campus of Boise State University, the 2,037-seat Velma V. Morrison Center for the Performing Arts is Idaho's premier performing arts center. Nestled on the banks of the Boise River, with a panoramic view of the city, parks and foothills, the Center's 10-story stage house is a recognizable fixture of the Capital's picturesque skyline. The realization of a life-long dream of Harry W. Morrison, and championed by his widow, Velma, the Center opened its doors on April 7, 1984. Today the Center is recognized as a major destination for arts and culture, annually hosting hundreds of live entertainment and arts education offerings that serve to enrich the lives of patrons of all ages. As a Boise State affiliate, the Center is a non-profit organization supported by ticket sales, facility rentals, donations and the generous support of the Morrison Center Endowment Foundation, Inc.

MISSION

The Mission of the Velma V. Morrison Center for the Performing Arts is to encourage cultural and intellectual activities for the benefit and the enjoyment of all Idaho Citizens. The Morrison Center, known as "The Peoples' Theatre" by its founders, has been a fixture of the capital's landscape since 1984. With over 200 bookings each year and 150,000 patrons from all over the state and country flowing through its doors, the Center is a hub of cultural activity, a catalyst for economic development and a central and respected community meeting place.

BROADWAY

The Morrison Center for the Performing Arts accommodates major Broadway touring productions, bringing the best of Broadway to the Treasure Valley community and beyond.

PERFORMING ARTS

In addition to attracting national and international artists, the Center provides premier performance space for local artists and institutions which have developed their work specifically for this region and community.

EDUCATION/OUTREACH

We are committed to providing art related education and programming opportunities through educational workshops, talk-backs, camp and academic scholarships and subsidized or free tickets for students, children, and those in need.
